Gen. S. H. Russell, United States Marshal of Texas, will speak in this city, at the TABERNACLE, WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCT. 20.

Gen. Russell is a fine speaker, and met with great success during his recent canvass in Indiana. What he will have to say will be worth hearing, and he deserves a large audience.

The Boys in Blue and the Boys' Garfield and Arthur Clubs are requested to meet at the Court House at 7 o'clock, sharp, for escort duty.

On yesterday afternoon a serious accident occurred near Cerro Gordo in Platt county. Mrs. William Peck, the wife of a farmer residing near Cerro Gordo, accompanied by a lady friend were seated in a buggy. They were driving across the Wabash track, when the locomotive of the Paymaster's car came whizzing by at a high rate of speed. The buggy was struck almost squarely in the center, but in some miraculous manner the occupants escaped without receiving fatal injuries. The buggy was smashed into kindling wood, and the horse escaped with but slight bruises, but Mrs. Peck's right arm was broken at the elbow, her nose was badly bruised, and both sides of her face were scratched and torn. Her companion was not so seriously hurt, but she is feeling uncomfortably to-day. Dr. W. J. Chenoweth was summoned to the relief of the injured persons. The ladies did not observe the approaching train until too late to avert the calamity.

Not less than 600 Chicago pilgrims were aboard the Wabash train early this morning, bound for St. Louis. The coaches were completely packed with a mass of humanity on a "pleasure trip," the aisles being almost impassable. When the heavily loaded train stopped at the Union depot, though hungry as wolves, the passengers who had seats stuck to them and went on their hungry way, minus much needed refreshments. The cheap fare now prevailing on the Wabash and Chicago and Alton roads, is the cause of the exodus from both cities. The war on rates serves as a splendid advertisement for the new Wabash route from St. Louis to Chicago.

The Decatur Band will go to Bloomington to-morrow and compete for the cash prizes offered to visiting bands outside of the Evergreen City. To-morrow will be a great day in Bloomington, and thousands of Republicans from abroad will be there to hear Gen. Logan and others speak. A special train will be run on the Central road, leaving Decatur to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock, and will leave Bloomington on its return trip at 10 o'clock to-morrow night. The fare for the round trip is only $1.31.

The Springfield Post of last evening contained the following brief reference to the railroad war lately in progress in that city:

The war between the Wabash and Chicago & Alton still continues, but the same anxiety to purchase tickets is not manifested as was last week. The Wabash is selling limited tickets to Chicago for 55 cents, unlimited for $1.55, and round trip tickets for $4. The Alton road is selling only limited tickets at $1.50.—let the good work go on.

The excavation on South State street, for the new branch sewer to connect with the county jail has been commenced, and if freezing weather, sleet and snow—that sounds like winter, doesn't it?—hold off long enough the job will soon be completed. It will be a great improvement when finished, and will result in purifying the atmosphere of the prison department of the jail.

GEN. RUSSELL, United States Marshal of Texas, delivered a fine address at Paris last night. He will address the Republicans of Decatur at the tabernacle to-morrow night. Turn out all, and give him a grand reception. He strikes from the shoulder every time.

Time and Place to Register. The LAST DAY for legal voters to register will be next Tuesday, (Oct. 26th), one week before the National election, as fixed by law, and below we again give the various district voting places in Decatur township where the poll-books may be found in the hands of the appointed judges on the day stated:

First District—Hose House of Neptune Hose Co. No. 3, on East Cerro Gordo street.

Second District—At Benj. Dill's carpenter shop, on North Union street.

Third District—Headquarters Decatur Fire Department, on West Main street.

Fourth District—At Averitt's American House, corner of South Water and Wood streets.

Let every man in Decatur township, who has a legal vote, see to it that his name is on the poll-book in his district. The law reads: "No name can be added (or put upon the books) except upon the demand of the person himself, and then only after his making a true statement of where he lives, name, or street, if in a city, and number of house, if numbered." Don't neglect this duty. Remember the last day to register will be NEXT TUESDAY, Oct. 26th. [14-41w]

As previously stated in these columns, Charles Ward, a young man well-known in this city, was arrested at Williamsport, Warren county, Ind., on the 12th inst., charged with fraudulently voting the democratic ticket, on the advice of two prominent democratic attorneys of Williamsport—Debro and McCabe by name. Ward was arrested on a state warrant, and was released under bonds of $500, a wealthy but ignorant democratic citizen of Williamsport becoming his security. Subsequently the state case against Ward was dismissed, because the judge is not only a loud-mouthed democrat, but is also a personal friend of the wealthy surety and of the democratic attorneys above-named who are defending Ward. A warrant was immediately procured from the U. S. Commissioner's Court, and Ward was again arrested. He was set at liberty on furnishing a bond in the sum of $1,000, the said wealthy gent again serving as security. This morning the prosecuting attorney of Warren county, Mr. Harrell, arrived in Decatur for the purpose of procuring an important witness, who accompanied him to Williamsport for testimony. While here Mr. Harrell was interviewed by our reporter. He says the accumulated proof against Charlie is very strong, and there is no doubt whatever that he will be convicted at the sitting of the court this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The wealthy citizen, he says, is very anxious to have all proceedings stopped, but the law will take its course, no matter who is hurt. The case excites general interest at Williamsport, and the feeling is strong that not only Charlie, but the party who swore in his vote for him, ought to be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.—The penalty for voting fraudulently in Indiana is the same as for grand larceny—not less than two, nor more than 14 years in the penitentiary.

Theatrical.

Those who failed to see the eminent comedian, Mr. John T. Raymond, supported by his own specially selected comedy company, at the opera house last night, in his new comedy, "My Son," missed one of the best plays ever presented in Decatur. It was specially attractive because the ever popular Raymond was the central figure, and because the comedy was entirely new. It was not expected that the piece would give entire satisfaction, but during the progress of the play it soon became evident that all present were very agreeably disappointed, and the interest throughout the five thrilling acts remained unbroken to the end.

Mr. Raymond in his new character, Herz Weigel, a shoe manufacturer, and the dotting father of an unworthy son, displayed a versatility of acting that was truly wonderful, inasmuch as he has heretofore personated entirely different characters—those which have given him such an enviable reputation in America and Europe. During the progress of the play Raymond frequently brought tears unbidden to the eyes of his auditors, and in the next moment he "brought down the house" by his happy, natural hits. Raymond is splendidly supported in "My Son" by Mr. Davenport Beebus, as Eudolph, by Mr. W. F. Edwards, as Leopold, (My Son), Mr. Frank Wise, as Herz Schmal, by Miss Frankie McClellan, as Clara Weigel, by Miss Marie Chester, as Emma Wilmer, and others.

"COIL SELLERS." To-night the "Gilded Age," with Mr. Raymond as "Col. Mulberry Sellers," will be presented. Don't fail to attend. Raymond is great, and his support is superb.

Good News for the Ladies. Miss M. Fulmer, at No. 20 Merchant street, who has lately returned from Chicago, has now in stock a new line of millinery and fancy goods that the ladies of Decatur should see at once. In Memoriam.

At the meeting of Decatur Lodge, 1 O. of G. T., held Monday evening, Oct. 18th, 1880, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased an All-Wise Providence to remove from our midst our esteemed and beloved sister, Miss INEZ MAY KIZER, whose loss we deeply mourn; and

WHEREAS, It becomes necessary for us, as a lodge of Good Templars, to express our heartfelt sorrow for the loss of her who in life was so well beloved by all who knew her; therefore be it

Resolved, That by the death of our beloved sister, Miss INEZ MAY KIZER, we have lost one of our most faithful and earnest members, whose life was adorned with those noble christian virtues which won for her the hearts of those around her.

Resolved, That by her loss we will sadly miss her in this our circle of brothers and sisters; one who was ever ready to do all in her power to promote the great cause of temperance and help in the good work of rescuing perishing ones; and though we may miss her here below, yet realize that "in that temple, not made with hands eternal in the heavens," our sister lives, clothed in the garb of immortality, "where the wicked cease from troubling, and the weary are at rest."

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the family of the deceased, and also to the city papers for publication.

As previously stated in these columns, Charles Ward, a young man well-known in this city, was arrested at Williamsport, Warren county, Ind., on the 12th inst., charged with fraudulently voting the democratic ticket, on the advice of two prominent democratic attorneys of Williamsport—Debro and McCabe by name. Ward was arrested on a state warrant, and was released under bonds of $500, a wealthy but ignorant democratic citizen of Williamsport becoming his security. Subsequently the state case against Ward was dismissed, because the judge is not only a loud-mouthed democrat, but is also a personal friend of the wealthy surety and of the democratic attorneys above-named who are defending Ward. A warrant was immediately procured from the U. S. Commissioner's Court, and Ward was again arrested. He was set at liberty on furnishing a bond in the sum of $1,000, the said wealthy gent again serving as security. This morning the prosecuting attorney of Warren county, Mr. Harrell, arrived in Decatur for the purpose of procuring an important witness, who accompanied him to Williamsport for testimony. While here Mr. Harrell was interviewed by our reporter. He says the accumulated proof against Charlie is very strong, and there is no doubt whatever that he will be convicted at the sitting of the court this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The wealthy citizen, he says, is very anxious to have all proceedings stopped, but the law will take its course, no matter who is hurt. The case excites general interest at Williamsport, and the feeling is strong that not only Charlie, but the party who swore in his vote for him, ought to be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.—The penalty for voting fraudulently in Indiana is the same as for grand larceny—not less than two, nor more than 14 years in the penitentiary.

Theatrical.

Those who failed to see the eminent comedian, Mr. John T. Raymond, supported by his own specially selected comedy company, at the opera house last night, in his new comedy, "My Son," missed one of the best plays ever presented in Decatur. It was specially attractive because the ever popular Raymond was the central figure, and because the comedy was entirely new. It was not expected that the piece would give entire satisfaction, but during the progress of the play it soon became evident that all present were very agreeably disappointed, and the interest throughout the five thrilling acts remained unbroken to the end.

Mr. Raymond in his new character, Herz Weigel, a shoe manufacturer, and the dotting father of an unworthy son, displayed a versatility of acting that was truly wonderful, inasmuch as he has heretofore personated entirely different characters—those which have given him such an enviable reputation in America and Europe. During the progress of the play Raymond frequently brought tears unbidden to the eyes of his auditors, and in the next moment he "brought down the house" by his happy, natural hits. Raymond is splendidly supported in "My Son" by Mr. Davenport Beebus, as Eudolph, by Mr. W. F. Edwards, as Leopold, (My Son), Mr. Frank Wise, as Herz Schmal, by Miss Frankie McClellan, as Clara Weigel, by Miss Marie Chester, as Emma Wilmer, and others.

"COIL SELLERS." To-night the "Gilded Age," with Mr. Raymond as "Col. Mulberry Sellers," will be presented. Don't fail to attend. Raymond is great, and his support is superb.

Good News for the Ladies. Miss M. Fulmer, at No. 20 Merchant street, who has lately returned from Chicago, has now in stock a new line of millinery and fancy goods that the ladies of Decatur should see at once. All the latest "agencies," in fall and winter hats, neatly trimmed to order by a Chicago milliner. Crocheting and knitting done on short notice; and matts to match hats made to order. Remember the place and call at once. [Oct 19-41d]

In Memoriam.

At the meeting of Decatur Lodge, 1 O. of G. T., held Monday evening, Oct. 18th, 1880, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased an All-Wise Providence to remove from our midst our esteemed and beloved sister, Miss INEZ MAY KIZER, whose loss we deeply mourn; and

WHEREAS, It becomes necessary for us, as a lodge of Good Templars, to express our heartfelt sorrow for the loss of her who in life was so well beloved by all who knew her; therefore be it

Resolved, That by the death of our beloved sister, Miss INEZ MAY KIZER, we have lost one of our most faithful and earnest members, whose life was adorned with those noble christian virtues which won for her the hearts of those around her.

Resolved, That by her loss we will sadly miss her in this our circle of brothers and sisters; one who was ever ready to do all in her power to promote the great cause of temperance and help in the good work of rescuing perishing ones; and though we may miss her here below, yet realize that "in that temple, not made with hands eternal in the heavens," our sister lives, clothed in the garb of immortality, "where the wicked cease from troubling, and the weary are at rest."

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the family of the deceased, and also to the city papers for publication.
